RED TROOPS CAPTURE LUBLIN AND LUKOW

Allies Preparing for Greater Battles in Normandy

Regroup Forces For Next Phase Of Great Drive

Weather Causes Delay in Action

By JAMES M. LONG
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS
ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Tuesday, July 25 (AP)—The deadlocked Allied and German armies traded inconclusive blows on the sodden Normandy battlefield
yesterday while summoning strength
for the greater battles to come.

Only two actions were reported along the 100-mile front as the Allies regrouped to mount the next phase of the breakout attacks, mired
down on the British front in torrential rain four days ago.

British Advance
Eight miles east of Caen, the British pushed into the western part of Troarn. Dives river strongpoint blocking the highway to the big port of Le Havre, struck stiff resistance and withdrew to the railway station just west of the town.

The Germans ejected an American unit which had been driven to the west bank of the river of the same name, where they held strong positions and one-half mile north of Periers.

Little Ground Activity
The midnight communiqué made no mention of ground activity and confined itself to reports of light-bomber attacks on enemy troops
and rail movements from the east of the Seine river to the battle area
as the Germans struggled to bring up reinforcements for the big test.

The quiet on the front was attributed as much to the weather,
which closed in and again restricted
aerial operations, as to the deliberate preparations for the coming major strokes.

(The German agency DNB said Lt. Gen. Miles C. Dempsey had landed fresh reinforcements for his second British army and appeared to have concluded preparations for a new large-scale offensive from positions east and south of Caen.)

Latest from Germany (Southwest of Caen, the Germans acknowledged loss of strategic Mal-tot, but claimed possession of dominant "Crucifix Hill" 112, north of Evreux. Official Allied accounts yesterday said the hill still was firmly in Allied hands.)

It appeared obvious a new offensive to break the stalemate would be uncorked as the muddy battlefield dries.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery
has tried to break out twice on his east flank. The first lunge took Caen, the second won the foothold
needed across the Orne river,
but neither broke into the open.

Shortness of the front gives the Germans the advantage of extreme density of defense, in contrast to the eastern front where the Germans must spread themselves thin
and leave themselves open to deep,
swift Russian breakthroughs.

15 Men Missing In Three Planes

POPE FIELD, N. C., July 24 (AP)— Three C-47 transport planes and crews today were officially reported missing off the North Carolina coast by the commanding officer of this army air base at which the men and planes were stationed.

The planes were on an over-
water training flight Friday night when last heard from. Since then continual and extensive search for the men and planes has been conducted by army, navy and coast guard installations, but was terminated, the announcement
said, with exhaustion of all hope of finding them.

Remembers Pallbearers

FREDERICK, Md., July 24 (AP)—
The late Blon E. Bopst, whose will deposited today, left $5, "with thanks," to each of the pallbearers
who carried his casket.

Newly Created Polish Council Asks Wide Outlet to the Sea

By EDDY GILMORE
MOSCOW, July 24 (AP)—The newly-created Polish People's National Council said in a manifesto today
that the "Polish-Soviet border
should come about by mutual agreement" and also declared for a "wide outlet to the sea."

The manifesto declared for "Polish border posts on the Oder river."
(The Oder flows through Breslau, Germany, to the Baltic at Stettin.)
A frontier on that line apparently would include in Poland all of East Prussia, most of Pomerania and part of Brandenburg.

The manifesto was dated at

Time To Change Horses:

So Democrats Abandoned Wallace, GOP Chairman Brownell Declares

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, July 24 (AP)—
Republican National Chairman
Herbert Brownell, Jr., declared today that the Democrats proved a Republican contention last week
when they passed over President Roosevelt's first running choice for running mate, Henry A. Wallace.

The contention: "It's time to change horses."

Brownell, making his first visit to Republican headquarters here
since he was named last month to direct the party's national campaign, predicted the next few months will bring "considerable"
talk about control of the Democratic party.

This control, he declared, rests with two elements—"the bosses of the corrupt big city machines and the radical left wingers who are closer to Communism than any other political philosophy." He mentioned no names.

Asked whether he expects to conduct a vigorous campaign in Texas,
where the Democratic party has been long in internal warfare,

Brownell said he thought Texas
himself had commented so vociferously on the political situation

Yanks Advancing On Philippines

UNITED STATES PACIFIC FLEET HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, July 24 (AP)—The American threat to re-conquest of the Philippines stood out boldly today with successful and developing invasions of Guam and Tinian. In Japan's inner Marianas islands and actions by Southwest Pacific forces
in water off the Southern Philippines.

Invasion of Tinian, three miles southwest of conquered Saipan, was effected Sunday morning by units of the second and fourth marine divisions. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced.

Leathernecks Land
The assault forces vaulted over
from Saipan with co-ordinated air, land and sea support. Guns and planes based on Saipan and carrier planes and naval guns blasted the island as the leathernecks landed
against light ground opposition.

On Guam, 130 miles south of Saipan, American forces which cracked that island's defenses
Thursday were closing in on Apra harbor. They had beaten off enemy infiltration attempts, cut off a body of Japs on Orde peninsula and captured several towns or villages
as they overran five miles of the island's west-central coastline.

As the twin invasions in the Marianas developed the northern threat to the Philippines, Gen. MacArthur broke official silence that has obscured aerial activities in and around the islands to which he has avowed he will return.

Drive for Philippines
His Monday communiqué boldly listed the Philippines for the first time as an action theater. It told of bombers sinking a Japanese resupply ship off Mindanao and delivering a heavy attack on Halmahera island, on the southern approaches to the Philippines. Halma-hera is an important enemy island
base.

The Tinian invasion came four days after ground forces knifed onto Guam. Weeks of aerial bombing and shelling by artillery on Saipan had neutralized most of Tinian's beachhead defenses. It is less than three miles across the channel between Saipan and Tinian, bringing Tinian within effective range of artillery setup on Saipan.

Landings continued on Tinian,
said Nimitz' brief communiqué
Sunday night. While first resistance was light, this was expected to stiffen as the marines pushed inland.
The island is not as rugged as Saipan or Guam but has several easily defended tablelands.

Chelm, Poland, taken Saturday by the Red army.

Establishment of the Council was interpreted in Moscow to mean that,
so far as the Soviet Union is concerned, the Polish government in London no longer represents Poland.

"The eastern border," said the manifesto, "should be a line of neighborly friendship, not a barrier between us and our neighbors. It should be regulated according to the principle: Polish lands—Poland;
Ukrainian, White Russian and Lithuanian territories—the Soviet Union."

Raid North Italy And Balkan Areas

By ERNEST AGNEW
LONDON, July 24 (AP)—Up to 500 American heavy bombers streaking from Italian bases today pounded German airdromes, harbors and other targets in France, Yugoslavia,
and Northern Italy, striking at Hitler's southern bastions after the RAF had delivered the heaviest and most concentrated attack of the war
on the Northern German naval base
at Kiel.

Kiel was saturated with nearly 3,000 tons of high explosives and incendiary bombs. It was there that sailors mutinied as Germany collapsed in 1918.

Blast Robot Platforms
The air war rolled forward by daylight today from two directions.
Besides the triple blows by the Mediterranean-based bombers, RAF Lancasters blasted robot bomb installations in France for the third time in twenty-four hours, and other planes
supported troops fighting in France.

Thick clouds over the Normandy
battlefront restricted tactical air operations for a time. But as the weather improved during the late afternoon, Thunderbolts, including fighter bombers, winged toward the French coast to strike blows in support of the invasion troops. United States Eighth Air Force fighters struck in daylight at airfields in Southwestern Germany, shot up enemy aircraft on the ground, and strated transport and communication facilities.

RAF Attacks
The devastating assault on Kiel marked the first time since the invasion of France that any great industrial area of Germany had been the target for a major RAF night attack, although precision raids had been made on Ruhr valley synthetic oil plants.

The RAF Lancasters dropped their destruction through thick cloud extending to 4,000 feet, and within fifteen minutes had deposited their entire load.

The night's attacks included heavy assaults against an oil storage depot
at Domburg near St. Nazaire in France.

Throughout the day the Germans hurled more of the robot bombs at Southern England, including the London area. The Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet said the Nazis
now were producing the winged projectiles at a rate of more than 4,000 per day, in preparation for what the newspaper called the "second phase" of Hitler's revenge bombing.

Spellman Not To See Pope in Peace Move

ROME, July 24 (AP)—Persistent reports linking the visit of Archbishop Francis J. Spellman, New York, to the Pope with possible
peace overtures on the part of the Vatican brought a formal denial from the archbishop today that his trip here has any connection with such a subject.

After Archbishop Spellman
learned of public reports in America that he had discussed a "papal peace plan" with the Holy Father yesterday he issued a denial through a spokesman.

"His excellency authorizes me to tell you that that is false. He denies it absolutely," said the spokesman.

In Vatican quarters it likewise was denied that a peace plan was the subject of Bishop Spellman's conversations with the Pope or that the Pope was expected to come forward with any peace plan.

Home Brew Joint Raided by Sheriff

FREDERICK, Md., July 24 (AP)—
Sheriff Horace M. Alexander reported today that he and his deputies raided a home near Emmitsburg
and arrested a woman on a charge of manufacturing untaxed beer after finding "home brew" mash, sugar
and malt.

FDR an Exception: He Can Send Congratulatory Wires In Violation of Drastic Orders

NEW YORK, July 24 (AP)—J. L.
Egan, vice-president of Western Union, today upheld his company's acceptance of President Roosevelt's congratulatory telegram to Senator Harry S. Truman on the grounds that "presumably it constituted an exception" to an official ban on such messages.

"If the president had the authority to authorize issuance of the ban
he has the authority to modify, alter
or rescind it," Egan said in a statement.

The ban against congratulatory telegram was established March 8, 1942, by a presidential order delegating powers to the Board of War Communications.

Japanese Enter City of Hengyang

CHUNGKING, July 24 (AP)—Strong Japanese units in severe combats
penetrated the southwestern outskirts of encircled Hengyang in Hunan province yesterday and both sides suffered heavy losses in the bitter battle which ensued, the Chinese high command announced
today.

The Chinese had been attacking
the southwestern suburb positions of the Japanese for several days in an attempt to effect a major breakthrough at that point.

On all sides, the weary defenders
of the Canton-Hankow railway city were engaged in heavy fighting. The high command claimed "our positions were safe" after repeated Japanese counterattacks. North and northwest of the city, a communiqué
said, Chinese troops took several important villages.

Sixty miles to the north, at the western end of a long Japanese line pressing down the railway on both sides, Chinese troops broke through the north gate of Japanese-held Shangsiang. Street fighting was in progress within the town.

German Prisoner Escapes at Denton

DENTON, Md., July 24 (AP)—The Federal Bureau of Investigation reported the escape of a German prisoner today from a lumber mill at Denton.

One of a group of prisoners from Camp Somerset at Westover, Md.,
the prisoner was identified as Hans Flunkert, 23. He was said to be wearing a tan shirt, blue denim trousers, an oil-skin coat and peaked German army cap.

He was described as being five feet, seven inches tall, weighing 160
pounds, having blue eyes, brown
hair and a fair complexion.

FIRST WACS TO RECEIVE THE PURPLE HEART

THESE FOUR MEMBERS of the Women's Army Corps were decorated with the Purple Heart in a hospital in England where they are recovering from injuries received in a robot bomb blast. They are the first WACS in the European theater to receive this award. They are (l. to r.): Pvt. Effie M. Gibbons, Lexington, Idaho; Margaret Johnson, Madison, Wis.; Leona J. Galyon, Odessa, Tex., and Dorothy Whitfield, Schenectady, N. Y. Standing are (l. to r.): Capt. Rose F. Ross, New York city; Lt. Col. Anna M. Wilson, Studio City, Calif., and Lt. Col. Henry M. Texas Negroes Organizing: Colored Democrats Plan To Hold Precinct and County Conventions

HOUSTON, Tex., July 24 (AP)—In what one Democratic party official described as the first such action
ever taken by negroes in the South,
one group of negro voters organized for a Democratic precinct convention here Saturday and another elected negro delegates to the county convention July 29.

Chairman M. L. O. Andrews of
the Harris County Democratic Executive committee said today that he believed the precinct twenty-five convention, called by E. H.
Harrison, a negro union official and vice president of the Third Ward Civic Club, was the first ever organized in the South by negroes.

With three whites and fifty to sixty negroes attending, the convention elected Harrison temporary chairman. A white woman, Miss Lottie Wallis, precinct election
judge, was named to cast the precinct's one vote at the Democratic county convention.

Asked "does this mean that the Democratic party is open to negroes?" Andrews replied:

"This means that as a result of the supreme court ruling (opening Democratic primaries to negro voters) political parties haven't got the right to say who can be a member. Churches and clubs can exclude individuals from membership if they desire but the supreme court
says political parties cannot do so."

Miss Wallis was named, Harrison said in an interview today, "because the custom in the precinct was that the precinct judge be elected the first delegate and we were entitled to only one delegate."

In the precinct forty-eight convention, ten whites and ten negroes
were elected delegates to the county convention, Andrews said. This convention was organized by whites.

Russians Split Reeling German Army in Poland

Nazi Casualties 539,890 in Month

By W. W. HERCHER
LONDON, Tuesday, July 25 (AP)—
Marshal Konstantin K. Rokossovsky's First White Russian armies yesterday split the reeling German forces in Poland by capturing the rail city of Lublin and toppling Lukow, only sixty miles southeast of Warsaw, while the First Ukraine
army in the south leaped the San river at several points in a direct drive on German Silesia, less than 150 miles away.

A special Moscow communiqué
also announced that the Germans had lost 539,890 troops killed and captured since the gigantic Soviet summer offensive began June 23.
These casualties were inflicted by only four Russian armies, and there are at least seven now hurling the Germans back on a 800-mile front
from the Baltic to the Carpathian mountains.

47,175 Casualties Near Lwow
Marshal Ivan S. Konev's troops, who jumped the San river in the south have killed or captured at least 47,175 Germans in a single trap northeast of Lwow, the daily
communiqué said.

The troops of Rokossovsky, son of a Warsaw cobbler, also captured Belzhitze, thirteen miles southwest of Lublin, in an overpowering drive which put the Russians less than twenty miles from the Wisla
River and from Siedlce.

Lukow's capture represented a thirty-mile smash in the last twenty-four hours, and by its seizure the Russians cut off the German fortress city of Brest Litovsk far to the east.

German broadcasts also said the Russians had reached Siedlce, only fifty miles east of Warsaw, and twenty miles north of Lukow.

Rokossovsky's troops already have torn more than 9,000 square miles out of the Axis grip in German-occupied Poland and beyond their immediate objective, Warsaw, lie
only plains leading to Germany on the shortest road to Berlin—365 air-miles from Siedlce.

Baltimore May Have New Station

BALTIMORE, July 24 (AP)—Chairman Stewart Purcell of the public service commission, acting on a recent recommendation by Governor O'Connor, disclosed today that the possibility of a modern union station to be included in Maryland's postwar building program would be considered at a meeting of railroad
officials Wednesday.

Purcell said he had requested the presidents of the Baltimore and Ohio, the Pennsylvania and the Western Maryland railroads to meet with the commission, and in case
they could not attend, to designate
a high official of the road to represent them.

Informed of the commission's action with regard to his suggestion, made while he was attending the Chicago national convention
(the Democratic O'Connor said that "traffic over the various lines in and out of Baltimore in the past few years has clearly demonstrated the inadequacy of local passenger facilities."

Men Up to 38 Will Continue To Be Inducted, Col. Stanwood Asserts

Baltimore, July 24 (AP)—State Selective Director Col. Henry C. Stan-wood said today that despite a report yesterday by the House Military Affairs committee that most Selective Service men likely can be met by men under 26, men up to 38
years will continue to be inducted.

"I don't want to give the impression that men over 26 won't be called," Col. Stanwood stated. "If they are not otherwise deferrable,
they will be called."

The report prepared by Col. Francis V. Keating, Jr., for the House committee, said "since the armed forces have already reached their men,
authorized strength, calls upon Selective Service for maintaining
this new strength."

"Contingent upon the progress
of the war, there is reasonable expectancy that forthcoming calls can be met by a large part from registrants under 26."

Col. Stanwood said the House committee report was "very much along the line of what I've said in the past."

"Certainly the majority of those called will be under 26. I certainly couldn't say that all of them will be. It wouldn't be fair to the Republican Women Are Getting Busy

RECENT DECLARATIONS by Republican party leaders that the organization will wage a militant campaign in this state are borne out by the announcement that Blanchard Randall, Jr., of Baltimore, nominee for United States senator, is going right out on the hustings and is thus not going to let any grass grow under his feet.
Randall is scheduled to open the campaign this Thursday evening when he will address a rally at Silver Creek parkway Silver Springs, under the auspices of the Montgomery County Republican Women's Club. The rally will be in the nature of opening the campaign guns in the political fireworks in that county, as Mrs. Lulu E. Powell, Maryland national Republican committeewoman, will be on hand to review the recent national conventions.
It is gratifying to note the activity of the women thus early in the campaign. That they are taking an active part in political affairs is quite appropriate in view of the fact that, resulting from the absence of so many male voters in war services of one kind or another, they will play a decisive role in this campaign. The program for the Silver Springs meeting was arranged by Mrs. David H. Baldwin, president of the Montgomery County Republican Women's Club, which has become a potent factor in Montgomery politics.
Go to it, women folks, and let others of you get likewise busy in helping to save this nation from dictatorship and bureaucracy.

Fears of the Upper Classes in Germany

AS REPORTED in an Associated Press dispatch, one observer with the American army in France, noting growing indications that the German general staff regards the war as lost, said that fear of what Russia might do to Germany was heightening the crisis both within the Reich and among German officers.
This fear of Russian victory was said to have been uppermost in the minds of the German officers taken prisoner by Americans. The Junkers and the aristocracy of the German army are deeply afraid the Russians not only will dismember Germany, but that the upper classes from which the army's officers traditionally have been drawn, will be wiped out.
Such fears are well justified, and they should obtain with regard to whether the Russians get into Germany first or whether their allies do. In view of the long dominance of Prussian militarism, which has kept Germany embroiled in wars for two centuries, dismemberment of the nation seems to be an excellent prophylactic. But, more effective would be the elimination of the upper classes from which the German army officers have always been drawn.
These warmongers need not be wiped out in the manner that has lately obtained in Germany to retain control, namely, the blood purge, but by taking from them the privileges and inheritances by which they have been enabled to wax fat and powerful. The sooner they are stripped of those the better, and it matters not just who tries it first, although it should be done by concerted Allied action.

Is Death Too Good For Hitler Now?

SPECULATION continues rife as to what is actually going on within the German Reich in consequence of the attempted removal of the Nazi high command. The late reports are to the effect that Hitler still has the upper hand through the use of night, and regrets continue to be expressed over the fact, particularly over the mischance whereby the head gangster escaped death from the bomb.
But that regret is not universal. We are hearing expressions of satisfaction over the fact that Hitler was not taken off. These are coupled with the admission that his death would cause rejoicing, but it is held that the present is just not the proper time for that happy event. It is hoped that der fuhrer will be allowed to live to see the day when Germany is overrun by the Allied armies and the people of his country crushed as they have endeavored to crush peoples of other nations.
As that day is not far off, a longer lease of life for the great murderer would not make a great deal of difference. But, while it would be something in the nature of poetic justice to note the mental tortures suffered by Hitler in witnessing the ruin of his diabolic works, such as are now being suffered by the abject and fallen Mussolini, that would be a vengeance not in accord with Christian precepts. No, the sooner Hitler and his associated arch criminals are eliminated and put out of the misery which they have earned, the better, regardless of what they may witness or suffer. There will be torture enough after it is all over and civilization will be bettered by their riddance.

Diapers, Dewey And the Smeared

SINCE all indications point to a smearing campaign on the part of the fourth-termers with Dewey and Hoover as the targets, the latter for no earthly reason at all, an item reported from Washington by a correspondent of a New York newspaper may have an important bearing on the campaign.
It concerns diapers. Priorities on them, it is stated, are getting serious consideration in Washington officialdom. "With textiles still topping the scarcity list," the report continues, "the industry tries every possible method to conserve supplies. The diaper plan (voluntary) would grant available supplies to hospitals first, then a new-born babies, then less essential users. (Makers of bomb-sights and precision glasses use thousands per month to polish lenses.)

Among the less essential users may be the campaign smearers. They threw the diaper at Dewey four years ago, and judging from the horror that was expressed at the Democratic national convention over the vigor and stamina and vision of youth they will try it again despite the lapse of four heavy years and the passage of Governor Dewey into further maturity. They will try it despite the fact that the strategy is in complete reversal of New Deal argument. Not so long ago the New Dealers deplored the presence of elders in government, particularly in the supreme court, and howled until they were blue in the face for more younger men. Now, however, the tired old men hanging to their jobs are held to possess the training and experience and ability and wisdom that before were flouted.
But a little thing like swinging into reverse is nothing for the New Dealers. They have practiced it so often and so long that it now becomes second-hand for them. Wherefore, the diaper industry is likely to have a big call during the next few months not only metaphorically but for campaign insignia and souvenirs. It is to be hoped the industry will be able to bear up under the strain.

Pearl Harbor Inquiry Likely To Be Delayed

CREATION by the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy of two special boards of inquiry to investigate the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor has been announced. This action is in conformity with a congressional resolution which was a compromise of a proposal to force an immediate trial of Rear Adm. Husband E. Kimmel and Maj. Gen. Walter C. Short, who stood accused of failing to be prepared for the attack.
These officers have suffered for more than thirty months under a stigma of accusation. They were relieved of their commands by the president and have not seen active service since that time. The administration defense of this failure to accord them the trial to which they are entitled under the American system of justice is that a trial might involve the national security.
The question whether or not the officers were guilty of negligence goes to the fundamental differences in the reports of Ambassador Grew, the State department and the official administration statements. On the face of these reports, which were made following the report of the president's investigating committee, there is a grave implication that the president failed as commander-in-chief to co-ordinate his information in such a way as to forestall the Japanese attack.
In view of the possibility that a complete airing of all the evidence in the case might involve the president in responsibility for the disaster, it is unlikely that the fundamental question will be explored until after the election. The newly created boards probably will not go beyond the sphere of sound judgment in decisions.

Today's Fable: Once upon a time a bunch of bus passengers who were riding to the end of the line went to the rear of the coach and did not clutter up the entrance as though frozen there.

The man who has difficulty finding his rent money will be glad to know that the amount of cash in circulation in this country now is $5,000,000,000 greater than it was this time last year.

In his dual role as president and commander-in-chief, the fourth-term candidate will attempt to ride two horses while crossing a stream. Hay fever sufferers naturally think a great mistake was made when golden rod was given such a beautiful name.

Fortress Europe is rapidly becoming the most carefully guarded junk heap in all history.

What Do You Pay?
By MARSHALL MASLIN

You pay so much a month for meat. Your grocery bill is about average. You must figure a certain amount for insurance. . . for the dentist, the doctor, clothes, amusements, for the car, and for those expenses that are always popping up like toadstools after a rain.

You have it all figured and you know how much you spent for everything and you don't waste your money.
Neither do you waste your time. It's budgeted like your money—so many hours for sleep, for exercise, for recreation, for study. Not an idle second anywhere for the devil to get a toe-nail in and start his dirty work.

And yet, you aren't happy and you wonder why. Well, you might go over your budget again to see if you aren't paying too much for something.
Maybe you are paying too much for things you never set down in your neat little books. It's possible you spend too much of yourself on your HATES and if you do that, all your fine bookkeeping is wasted and your books will never balance.

You can figure out the dimes and the dollars but if you spend too much on your hates you'll be bankrupt before you know it.

You pay so much a month on a washing machine and after a while it's paid for. But if you shout criticism or scandal everytime you hear a certain name mentioned, you'll never get that expenditure finished.

I've heard many people talk about having their noses always on the grindstone of work, but that stone can't compare with the stone of heart that wears a heart to nothingness.
If we think of our little hates at all and say, "I won't count this one" every time we hate, we get to believing that. . . But everything does count.
Every use we make of our hands or our tongue or our mind COUNTS and not all the great powers of the universe can prevent it from counting. If we spend too much on HATES, on little criticisms of people we know, on fierce abuse of individuals we dislike intensely, it will come out of our only real income, our happiness.
And what we lose in that way, we never get back.

ANYBODY NEED A BLOOD TRANSFUSION?

Wallace Defeat Is Seen as Interruption Of the New Deal and Curb on Dynasty
By MARK SULLIVAN

Defeat of Mr. Henry A. Wallace for the Democratic vice-presidential nomination was more than just the defeat of a candidate. It was more than an incident of one campaign year. It was the interruption of the New Deal as, so-to-speak, an ideological dynasty. This is by far the most important consequence of the Democratic national convention. It is the sort of thing that makes history, and sets a pattern of the future.
The purpose of those who fought fanatically for renomination of Mr. Wallace was realistic, to a degree almost touched in a way with the macabre. They assumed the possibility that President Roosevelt, if re-elected, might not serve out his fourth term—and they wished to be sure that if this should happen, they would have in the White House a man as sympathetic to them as Mr. Roosevelt, one who would perpetuate the New Deal.
If the successful nominee for the vice-presidency, Senator Truman, should become president, he would be sympathetic to the New Deal, or most of it. But he would not be as sympathetic as Mr. Roosevelt, for in the Senate Mr. Truman has opposed New Deal measures. Decidedly Mr. Truman would not do what Mr. Wallace would—carry the New Deal further distances into new fields. Senator Truman, because of his temperament and his record, would be far closer to the old-school Democrats than Mr. Wallace; and this disposition on his part would be increased by the fact that he got his nomination from the old-school Democrats—got it as the old-school Democrats' alternative to Mr. Wallace.
So much for the long-range consequences of what was done at the Democratic national convention. There remains the immediate effect, on the coming presidential campaign. Had Mr. Wallace been renominated, revolt of many old-school Democrats would have been certain — he was the outstanding symbol of what they fought against. With nomination of Senator Truman, the tendency toward revolt will be lessened. The old-school Democrats can now feel the reverse of what the CIO and the other Wallace groups hoped to feel. They may feel that they can endure as much more of the presidency of Mr. Roosevelt as there may be, conoling themselves with confidence that upon Mr. Roosevelt's leaving the White House the New Deal as a political dynasty will be terminated.

Big Leftward Turn

With Mr. Wallace as president, indeed, they would have more than merely perpetuation of the New Deal. They would have a president with a crusading temperament, and a mind strongly bent toward intellectual adventure to a degree sometimes startling. With such a man in the presidency, there might be hope for almost any of the new ideologies of the groups who supported Mr. Wallace. And these included practically every shade of left-wing thought, as far to the left as the Communist Political Association. Mr. Wallace as president would be even more satisfactory to the left-wing groups than Mr. Roosevelt, for Mr. Roosevelt temporizes while Mr. Wallace is a man of uncompromising zeal.
Nomination of Mr. Wallace, followed by his elevation to the presidency, would have affected the course of the country. And it would have definitely changed the nature of the Democratic party, making it the vehicle of the left-wing and radical groups.
These consequences are now averted. The grandiose hopes of the groups which supported Mr. Wallace

Democratic Chiefs Lack Confidence, Paul Mallon Says
By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, July 24—It was an interesting crowd of Democratic office holders who trooped back from Chicago. The look on their faces could raise a smile from anyone. Not that any seemed especially disgusted—or elated. They just persistently treated their handwork as a matter of course (apparently also as the Mr. Roosevelt who went off to the Pacific coast). The normally crusty Interior Secretary looks for instance his chin up over the defeat of Mr. Wallace by saying: "We nominated the second best man." I have never seen politics less inspired or less enthusiastic.

Practical Working Arrangement

What they did in Chicago in the last analysis was to form a purely practical political working arrangement for the campaign between the city bosses on the one hand and the left leaners, even CIO, on the other. Senator Truman will bring into the campaign a background of support from both of these elements including the old Pendergast machine in Missouri.

National Chairman Hannegan has his own machine in St. Louis. Chicago Mayor Ed Kelly, who was probably the convention's most important manipulator, now has the most complete machine in the country. He directs everything there now although some insiders say the apparatus has really become too big and is showing some signs of cracking. These, together with Ed Flynn and Hague from both sides of the Hudson ran the convention.

Radicalism No Factor

Now they did not kick Mr. Wallace out because he is radical. He had just become personally unpopular further along the road to Tokyo.

Does this mean that Halsey will play an important part when American forces move into the Philippines? The Japs would like to know Chinese To Learn

In spite of the fact that she has been all but knocked out by the Japanese, fighting China has just enacted a new law requiring compulsory education for all persons—children and illiterate adults alike. The law climaxes a campaign against illiteracy that began in China fifty years ago. The new public school law provides that all children between the ages of 6 and 12 go to a free public school, and that every adult who cannot read or write attend school for at least a year.

New Committee Victory

The Senate's vigilant watchdog—the Truman investigating committee—chained up another victory for its part in the industrial reconversion agreement among warring government officials.
By indirectly forcing the War Production Board, the military services and other government agencies to come to terms on the resumption of partial civilian production, the committee has virtually played out its role.
The committee intends, however, to continue as the people's forum. Future hearings will probably be marked by complaints from businessmen denied applications for resumption of civilian production.

Army Wins Toy Battle

The United States Army has won another fight. This one was on the toy front with baby dolls as the objective.
WPB intended to reject the request of a manufacturer for fourteen tons of lead and some brass for eyes and voices for Christmas dolls.
It was found out that the boys at the front wanted "life-like" babies for Christmas presents for their kiddies. The army then fired a few blasts in support of the request when it learned that five per cent of the dolls were to be set aside for request orders from the service fathers and the objective was taken.

The distant rumbling of Russian guns that mean freedom is already sounding in the ears of the Nazi enslaved population of Warsaw when the east wind blows. Red columns are that close to the northeast, the east and the south-

May By-Pass Warsaw

If they follow their own well established strategy, however, Red forces will by-pass Warsaw, not waste lives in frontal assaults. Most of the city lies west of the Wisla. It would be more difficult to take by storm than Stalingrad, highwater mark of the Nazi war on Russia.

German expectation of by-passing drives on both sides of Warsaw is indicated in evacuation of Siedlce, last important town on the Warsaw - Moscow direct railroad east of Warsaw. At that point a Russian advance group is less than fifty miles from the heart of the Old Polish capital.

Grave Threats to Nazis

Southward at Lublin, the Russians have posed a graver threat by a wide-fronted break-through across the Bug river to within twenty-five miles or less of the Wisla. It is there by every sign, at the town of Putawy where the Lublin-Radom railroad crosses the Wisla that the fate of the last water defense line east of Germany's own fortress is apt to be decided.

A Russian break through at that point driven to any depth would outflank the Warsaw defenses. Further south Ukrainian armies sixty miles west of by-passed Lwow are already in a position to turn the Wisla front before the demoralized foe reaches it for a stand.

County and Individual Homemakers To Meet

Fair Exhibits, Special Schools and Meetings To Be Planned

A special meeting of the County Council of Homemakers Clubs, county officers, county chairmen, club presidents and club fair chairmen has been called by Miss Maude A. Bean, county home demonstration agent, for 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Cumberland Free Public Library, at which time plans will be formulated for the exhibits at the Cumberland Fair, August 14 to 19.

Topics to be discussed will include suggestions for fair chairmen to encourage members of their communities to try to win some of the premiums; and to decide what would be the best method to use the fair point surplus of 1942 and 1943.

Arrangements will also be made for schools in "Food Preservation," "Sewing Machine Clinics," and the "Community Recreation Meetings" for August.

Miss Bean urges all Homemakers club to be represented in order to have the opportunity to learn what other clubs are doing and report back to their clubs the new ideas obtained.

Pleasant Grove WSCS Will Hold Festival

The Pleasant Grove Church Women's Society of Christian Service will sponsor a festival at Hinkle's camp, August 5. Plans were formulated at a meeting held last week.

A teacher of music in the public schools of Allegany county, Miss Yates, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Yates, 46 Boone street, are guests of Mrs. May Yates, and her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Yates, Arthur Yates, Richmond, Va., is also a guest of Mrs. Yates.

Golden Wedding Chances

When a girl of 21 marries a man five years older, the chances are one in five that they will survive to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Marriage Is Announced

The marriage of Miss Catherine Thomas, daughter of Mrs. Oleta Thomas Forbeck, 228 East Elder street, to William E. Crawford, son of Mrs. Margaret Crawford, 113 West Elder street, has been announced.

The ceremony was performed July 17 in the parsonage of the First Methodist church with the Rev. George E. Baughman, officiating. Mrs. Wayne Riegleman was matron of honor and Aden Abe served as Mr. Crawford's best man.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Fort Hill high school. Prior to her marriage the bride was employed by the Cumberland Glass Company. The bridegroom is an employee of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Do Women in Their '40's Tell Their Right Age?

MANY SHOCKED TO FIND THEMSELVES CALLED "MIDDLE-AGED"

Be Sure To Read This If You Are in Your "40's" and Suffer From Hot Flashes, Weak, Nervous, Restless, Highstrung Feelings — All Due To The Functional "Middle-Age" Period Peculiar To Women

Time certainly flies and many a woman is startled to suddenly realize she is in her "40's"—or what is commonly referred to as "middle-age."

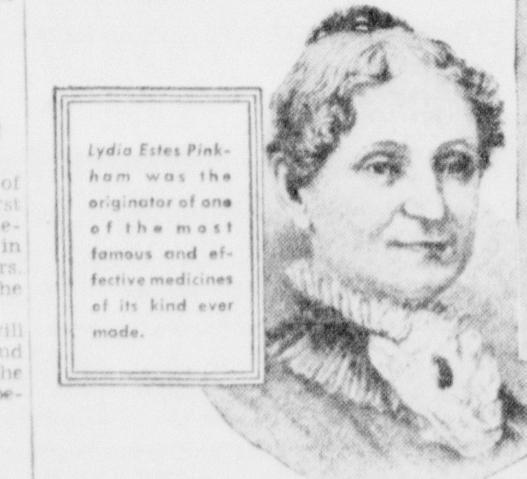

Now is a good time to check up on yourself if you're between the ages of 33 and 52!

In case you, like so many women, suffer from hot flashes, and feel nervous, restless, highstrung, so tired and perhaps a bit blue at times—all due to this functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women—here's a friendly tip. Try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. This time-tested medicine is famous for this purpose.

This Great Medicine HELPS NATURE

For almost a century Lydia Pinkham's Compound has been helping thousands upon thousands of women to go "smiling thru" such middle-age distress. Time and again Pinkham's Compound has proved some of the happiest days of some women's lives can often be during their "40's."

Scores of grateful women—rich and poor alike—have written

Lydia E. Pinkham was the originator of one of the most famous and effective medicines of its kind ever made.

Lydia Pinkham's Compound is made from a number of beneficial roots and herbs (plus Vitamin B). Above are 2 of the herbs—Astragalus and Chamaelirium luteum.

Now don't keep putting it off. Make up your mind right now that you'll get a bottle of Lydia Pinkham's Compound today from any first-class drugstore and start taking it regularly.

Follow label directions. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and at bedtime. Just see if you, too, don't remarkably benefit. Well worth trying!

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Younger Women, Too!

Lydia Pinkham's Compound is also very effective to help younger women relieve headaches, backache and weak, tired, nervous, highstrung feelings of "certain days" of the month—when due to female functional monthly disturbances. Follow label directions. Always keep Pinkham's Compound handy.

Twilight Tear Is Cinch To Capture Turf Accolades

Three-Year-Old Title Sewed Up but Other Crowns Unsettled

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK, July 24.—(AP)—Twilight tear is almost a cinch to win the horse of the year and three-year-old championship honors.

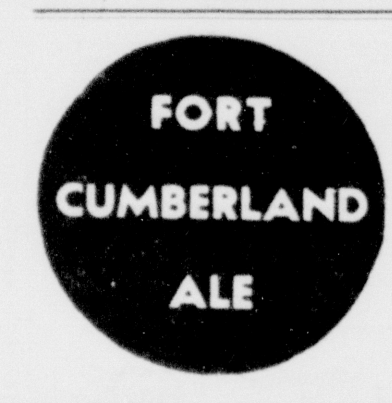

But after handing these accolades to the wine-colored filly from Warren Wright's Calumet farm, the selection of the other turf titleholders becomes a real problem.

When Twilight Tear raced to her eleventh straight victory in the Arlington classic last Saturday she not only added to her record as the top three-year-old filly of the year but established a good claim for championship honors of the three-year-old division. For behind her for the third time was her stablemate, Pensive, winner of the Kentucky derby and Preakness.

Earnings Reach $157,975
Although her 1944 earnings of $128,790 don't match Pensive's $157,975, the Calumet filly is the only older horse that has done everything asked of her this season. If she is voted the horse of the year and the three-year-old champion, ship it will be the first time that one of her sex ever has won such high honors.

The two-year-olds, however, are a different problem. There are many good juveniles and it may be that some of the best will not be shown until the Saratoga at Belmont park meeting opening next Monday.

Edward Lasker's Flood Town swept all before him in the east and then travelled west where he finished third in his debut and wound up fifth in the Arlington futurity won by John Marsch's Free for

Indians Wallop Senators, 10 to 1

CLEVELAND, July 24.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians pounded out fifteen safeties, including two triples and six doubles, to support Ed Killeman's four-hit hurling and take today's game from the Washington Nationals, 10 to 1.

Early Wynn went the route for the Nats, giving up hits in every inning. The Tribe tallied two runs in the second on doubles by Ken Keltner and Mickey Rocco and singles by Killeman and Buddy Rosar. They added five more in the third, on four walks, a double steal and an error and Rocco's triple. The final three scores came in the seventh on four more safeties.

The Nats collected their one run in the sixth, on singles by Joe Kuhel and Stan Spence and a long fly by Eddie Boland. The box:

Also to be considered are Walter M. Jefford's Pavo, an easy winner of his three starts, including last Saturday's $25,000 Mayflower stakes at Suffolk Downs; Lt. C. V. Whitely's Jeep and Bury-El-Arab, temporarily on the sidelines, and Gertrude Donovan's Fighting Don, who was out of the money in the Mayflower after winning three straight before being injured a month or so ago.

The handicap division is even more jumbled. Early in the season the title appeared to be between Mrs. J. Whitney's Devil Diver and Wright's Sun Again, but the former has been out of competition for several weeks and Sun Again has been retired for the season. In the interim, Four Freedoms, Devil Diver's stablemate, and Mrs. Ed Mulrenan's First Fiddle have taken over, with the latter holding a slight edge.

Brownies Defeat Red Sox for Even Break in Series

Galehouse and Caster Combine To Give St. Louis 6-5 Decision

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—(AP)—Denny Galehouse, taking over the starting assignment left by Nelson Pfaender's suspension, couldn't quite go the distance against the Boston Red Sox today but the league-leading Browns won 6 to 5, for an even break in the series with the third-place Sox.

Galehouse, after poor luck in the role of a part-time player, quit his war plant job and rejoined the Browns as a full-fledged member of the pitching staff.

For seven innings, he was master of the Sox, holding them to one run on Bobby Doerr's thirteenth homer of the season. In the eighth, he yielded another on a double by George Metkovich and a single by Bob Johnson. After Doerr walked, George Caster came in as relief pitcher and the Sox whaled him for a double by Hal Wagner and a single by Eddie Lake to narrow the Browns' margin to one run.

Caster bowled down and fanned the Sox, but in the ninth, he yielded the rally and swept past the Sox in order in the ninth inning.

Young Al Zarilla continued his great hitting streak for the Browns, coming up with a home run, triple and single. Mike Kreevich tripled one run across the plate in the first inning and belted two more over the fence in the second.

Also to be considered are Walter M. Jefford's Pavo, an easy winner of his three starts, including last Saturday's $25,000 Mayflower stakes at Suffolk Downs; Lt. C. V. Whitely's Jeep and Bury-El-Arab, temporarily on the sidelines, and Gertrude Donovan's Fighting Don, who was out of the money in the Mayflower after winning three straight before being injured a month or so ago.

The SPORTLIGHT

Hands and Body in the Swing

A good many thousands of golfers who follow such stars as Byron Nelson and Jug McSpaden around golf courses always have one comment to make—

"Why, they only use their hands, wrists and arms. Largely their hands. The body rarely gets into the swing at all."

It may look to be that way—but that isn't the way it actually is. It is the correct movement of the body and feet that give the hands and wrists their chance to swing the club head.

Such stars as Nelson, McSpaden and others may not show any exaggerated foot or body action, but for all of that the feet and the body, plus the shoulders, must still do their part.

Thousands upon thousands of golfers never give their hands a chance to swing the club. There are many reasons for this—

1. Too often the feet are planted against the ground with both legs tied up through tension.

2. Too often the body, much stronger than the hands, takes the charge of the swing and so gets in the way. There must be a natural body turn from left heel, left knee, left hip and left shoulder—all the way along the human frame, to give the hands their chance to take the club back in the right way and to give said hands their opportunity of work to do.

3. In the same way the body must get out of the way on the downswing to bring about any feeling of power or control.

Byron Nelson has nothing like the full, deep backswing that Ben Hogan uses. But this is a matter of detail. Their major fundamentals are exactly the same. Their feet and body movements are in the same pattern, if not to the same degree. Which means that both are in position to swing the club head, a position that countless golfers never or at least rarely feel.

The Curse of the Body
An unlimited number of golfers might improve their play considerably if they could only leave their bodies behind and merely take along their hands and arms. But this is a difficult assignment.

It is all right to tell them to swing the club head, an essential act, but how are they going to get in position to use live hands in the swinging act when the body has thrown a monkey wrench into the works?

"This correct blend of body and hand action is the toughest thing in golf to teach," says instructor Ross, now at Maidstone.

"How is one going to swing the club up and around, when his left side is all locked in a vise?"

"George Duncan used to say," I suggested, "never to leave the left shoulder and the left hip behind. They must turn with the swing."

"Duncan is 100 per cent right," Ross said. "Watch any good pitcher and see how he lets his weight move back to the back foot, and how his left shoulder and left hip turn (for a right hander). Did you ever try to throw a baseball standing flat-footed without turning?"

"I can still visualize Bobby Jones' movement from the start to the finish of his swing. First of all you see that his hands and his left hip start to work before the club head moves. He gets his hands hip and

Former National League Ump Will Coach Kansas U.

E. C. Quigley Promises Aggressive Athletic Program

LAWRENCE, Kans., July 24.—(AP)—E. C. Quigley, whose cry of "you can't do that!" has roared over many sports fields in his long career as an arbiter, took a new job today—rebuilding the athletic fortunes of Kansas University.

The former National League umpire was appointed director of athletics—and he promised an aggressive sports program for the Big Six school, his alma mater.

The 63-year-old Quigley said he would have full charge of the school's athletics.

"I'm big enough and strong enough to carry the load," he said at his home in St. Mary's, Kas., where he raises fine hogs.

He was happy to get the job which he said had been offered him three times in the last twenty-five years.

"I believe I'm going to like it a lot," he said. "It's going to be quite a change, but there's permanency to it and that's what I want."

He said he had no contract, that "I will stay there as long as they want me." Neither he nor the school would tell the salary.

There was nothing fleeting to his job, however, as an umpire in the National Baseball League. He was with the league for thirty-two years, twenty-five of them as an active umpire. He then became umpire-in-chief and for the past two years has been in charge of a personal relations department dealing with high school and other teams.

Quigley began his coaching career at Warrensburg (Mo.) Teachers' and for thirteen years was athletic director at St. Mary's (Kas.) college before he became a baseball umpire and college sports official.

Marion and Hopp Lead Cards to 7-1 Win over Braves

Marion Clouts Three Doubles and Hopp Laces Home Run

BOSTON, July 24.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals, paced by Martin Marion and Johnny Hopp, blasted three Boston Braves' pitchers to gain a 7-1 victory in today's series windup. Marion, who collected three consecutive doubles, started scoring drives in the third, fifth and sixth innings.

Fluttermaster Jim Tobin opened for the Braves but was blasted off the mound in the fifth inning when the Cards collected four runs on three hits, including Hopp's one-on-homer.

Ted Wilks limited the Tribesmen to five scattered hits and they escaped a whitewashing in the seventh when Butch Nieman drew a pass and, after being sacrificed, scored from second base on Dee Phillips's single to left field.

It was the last game for the duration for Connie Ryan, the Braves' all-star game second baseman, who reports to the navy tomorrow. The box:

Browns May Win Flag on Ability To Bounce Back

Club's Showing Advances Theory Wartime Averages Mean Nothing

ST. LOUIS, July 24.—(AP)—The sensational first-place monopoly of the usually-lowly St. Louis Browns advances the theory that in wartime baseball averages are just a lot of figures.

League leaders for the entire season with the exception of about three weeks in May, the Browns, according to latest batting and fielding averages, are definitely a second division club, sixth place at best.

They have only one .300 hitter—Vernon Stephens—and his average has not been on the favorable side of that mark more than half the year.

Although presenting the only entirely veteran infield in the majors, the club's fielding has left much to be desired. The averages rank them sixth, two percentage points out of last place.

It must be pitching, say the Browns' fans. But the club's best pitching record—nine victories and five losses—was earned by Bob Muncie. And yesterday Muncie was the victim of a 12-to-1 lacing at the hands of the Boston Red Sox.

One bright spot on the team's record is the loss column. Besides losing fewer games than any of the other seven clubs, the Browns have never lost more than three games in succession.

The club has shown the ability to bounce back. Twice in doubleheaders they have lost the first game by more than ten runs only to defeat their opponents in the nightcap.

Fight and spirit don't show in the averages, but they may bring the Browns their first pennant in American League history.

Rocking Chair League Leaders Collide Today

Separated by a half a game in the standing, the F. O. Eagles and the Woodmen of the World will clash this evening at Community park with the Rocking Chair Softball League lead at stake.

The Eagles have won thirteen games while losing seven while the Woodmen have topped one less contest while dropping a like number.

In other loop games today, the B. P. O. Elks will oppose the Knights of Columbus at Port Hill and the L. O. O. Moose will play the Knights of Pythias at Campobello.

Wednesday's card includes one game—Knights of Pythias and Knights of Columbus at Port Hill in a postponed encounter.

Baseball's Big 6 Garden State Now Is Big-Time Track

CAMDEN, N. J., July 24.—(AP)—Garden State park, the racing place that sprang up near here two years ago under almost insurmountable difficulties, has graduated into the big-time class, with million-dollar betting days an average rather than a rarity.

Figures compiled today for the first fourteen days of Garden State's fifty-day meeting show the bettors already have poured $15,308,941 into the mutuels, for a daily average of $1,093,496. As the "big" days are yet to come, the average is expected to rise.

By contrast, last year's horse average was $720,376 daily, while in 1942 the park's first year, the average was $528,217.

The crowds, too, have shown a steady increase. Last year, despite the pleasure driving ban, the track drew a daily average of 9,410, compared with 8,977 the previous year. So far this year, the average is 10,322.

Heavier individual betting has borne out strikingly. Saturday, 19,738 fans shelled out $1,470,338 in the betting machines, a sum of slightly under the track's all-time record of $1,563,337 last Labor day when the attendance was 29,767.

Members of the association and that the meet was so successful they are considering the installation of a large racing plant as a postwar project, possibly with a three-quarter mile track.

Liberty Dairymen Win Victory Tilt

Knights of Columbus 9-2 Reverse in Victory Junior Baseball League

LIBERTY, N. Y., July 24.—(AP)—The Liberty Dairymen, who won the first meeting of the two local rivals this season, won the second in the postponed engagement while Jack Steiner worked on the hill for the Casey's Liberty team.

Tomorrow evening, all eight clubs will be in action. Froburg and Lonaconing Legion teams will collide at Coney, DeMoia and Cumberland Legion will play at Community park, K. of C. and Liberty Dairymen will meet for the second time this week on the Taylor field and the Iron Firemen and McIntyre Tickers will clash at Campobello. The score:

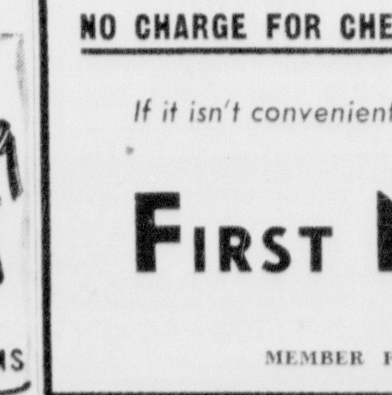

LIBERTY DAIRY 401 202 0-9
K. OF C. 100 100 0-2
Miller and Mease; J. Steiner and C. Steiner.

Women Golfers Will Have Kickers Tourney

Women golfers of the Cumberland Country Club will take part in a kickers handicap tournament today. Following the tourney, the Lichtenstein trophy, which must be won three times for permanent possession, will be presented to Mrs. D. B. Welsh, winner of last week's feature.

Sgt. Evan Boyer, Frostburg Man, Dies of Wounds

Is Eighth Serviceman of Community To Make Supreme Sacrifice

By RUDOLPH NICKEL

FROSTBURG, July 27—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boyer, 27 Linden street, received a telegram from the War Department Monday, stating that their son, Sgt. Evan Boyer, 27, who was seriously wounded in combat somewhere in France June 18, died June 26. He was attached to the One Hundred Seventy-fifth Infantry, Twenty-ninth division and had been overseas since September, 1942.

Sgt. Boyer was inducted into the military service April 23, 1941 and trained at Camp Meade, A. P. Hill Reservation, Port Bragg, N. C., Camp Blanding, Fla., and Fort Sill, Okla. He received two promotions before going overseas, from private to corporal and then to sergeant.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Miss Mildred Boyer, and two brothers, Earl and Floyd Boyer, all of Frostburg. He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church and the first of the church "Honor Roll" of approximately sixty young people with the armed forces to make the supreme sacrifice in the present world war. He is the eighth Frostburg man of a group of about 1,000 on Frostburg's "Honor Roll" known to have died since Pearl Harbor.

The others who preceded him in death are David H. Beck, Daniel Mayer, Arthur Neal, Ralph Thomas, Francis E. Harvey, Kenneth DeVault and Joseph J. Grimes.

Before being inducted into the military service, Sgt. Boyer was employed at a Shaw's Tire Shop, this city. The last letter he received from him was dated June 13, two days before he was mortally wounded.

Missionary Will Speak

Miss Jenny Lind, New York, a Methodist missionary, will be the guest speaker Wednesday, 8 p. m., at a zone meeting of the W.S.C.S. of the Allegheny Methodist church, Zihlman. Meeting Will Be Held in High School at Accident at 8 P. M.

Voting on matters of policy will be a major event at the local annual Southern States membership meeting to be held at the high school auditorium, Accident, Tuesday evening, July 25, at 8 o'clock, according to Ross Speicher, of Accident who will preside.

From the following nominees, together with any named from the floor, the new board members will be chosen. Walter Harmon, Oscar Harmon, Elmer W. Goehring, and Walter Margroff.

The present Farm Home Advisory Committee will be continued for another year. The women on this committee and those on the other Farm Home Advisory committees in Southern States territory of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, and West Virginia are working under the leadership of Mrs. Sarah P. Ellis, director of Southern States Farm Home Service.

The co-operative members will also vote on two matters of policy: 1. In view of the enlarged program expected of Southern States Co-operative by its members shall patronage refunds be paid in stock or cash? 2. Shall Southern States Co-operative shorten the period in which voting stock is left outstanding? (Present policy is to call stock at par value ten years from date of issuance.)

District Manager C. T. Cline, Bridgewater, will give the annual report on Southern States Co-operative. There will also be a report on local co-operative activities by W. H. Fratz, Accident. The Rev. C. F. Dauthin, Accident, will give the invocation.

There will be an open forum, contests with prizes, and group singing led by Mrs. Bruce Miller, Accident. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Wilt, with the assistance of a committee of farm girls.

Mrs. June Wilt, Accident, is general chairman of arrangements.

This is one of approximately 350 membership meetings to be held this summer in the co-operative's territory. They are expected to attract an attendance of more than 70,000 farm people.

William C. Kirby Loses Life in France June 21

Was Husband of Mrs. Barbara Ways Kirby, 217 Frederick Street

Staff Sgt. William C. Kirby, 25, husband of Mrs. Barbara Ways Kirby, 217 Frederick street, was killed in action in France, June 21, according to a War Department telegram to his wife last night.

A former student at Port Hill high school, Sgt. Kirby was employed at Celanese for four years. He left Cumberland with Company G in February, 1941, and received training at Fort George G. Meade, Camp Blanding, Fla., and Camp Kilmer, N. J., before going overseas in October, 1942. He took part in the invasion of France June 6 with the Twenty-ninth division.

Sgt. Kirby married the former Barbara Ways in Cumberland July 19, 1941. Mrs. Kirby is employed as a proofreader in the News office. Sgt. Kirby never saw their daughter, Karen Kay, now 18-months-old.

Besides his widow and daughter, Sgt. Kirby is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kirby, 928 Maryland avenue, and two brothers, also in the armed forces. Pvt. John Kirby is stationed at Camp Murphy, Fla., and Pvt. George Kirby is stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J. Two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Peet and Geraldine Kirby, and a younger brother, Ronald, all at home also survive.

Sgt. Kirby was a nephew of Lt. Joshua Lewis, lat. gunner on a Flying Fortress, who was killed September 16, 1943, on a bombing mission over Germany. A cousin, Sgt. Harry K. Wilson, 213 Oak street, was wounded in France July 13, and a close friend, Pfc. Milton J. Crowe, 705 Princeton street, was killed in action in France, June 10.

Dusty Streets Are Discussed By City Council

Shades Lane and Pine avenue Residents Offered Temporary Relief

The petition of residents of Shades lane and Pine avenue that something be done to hold down the dust which arises from their unpaved surfaces was discussed yesterday by Mayor Thomas S. Post, council members and a delegation of residents. The city cannot black-top the streets at this time. Commissioner Hunter B. Helfrich said but indicated he would have screenings spread on the road. He urged residents to gather used oil at service stations to spread on the street. He said the city would haul oil drums to the site and return them to gas stations.

Street Is Racetrack
Lawrence E. Smith, a resident, declared the street is "used for a racetrack", and James Orr, police and fire commissioner said he would send an officer to investigate. Mr. Charles R. Lineburg, 325 Pine avenue spoke for residents of his street. Helfrich urged that property owners construct curbs which would enable the city to grade the street and make it passable. He pointed out that after the war help of a WPA unit might be forthcoming to enable improving of various streets. Lineburg pointed out that residents have the money to pay for the work now.

Other Council Business
Other matters taken up by council were request of R. M. Curran, secretary of the board of Kingsley Methodist church that something be done to curb dust in alley adjoining parsonage; referred to street commissioner. Letter from Mrs. Mary E. David, 631 Laine avenue complaining about postal service, referred to postmaster. Permit granted to Associated Broadcasting Corporation for a sewer connection on Reservoir avenue, the corporation agreeing to pay a tapage fee of $15.

Application of Crites Transfer
To install a 500 gallon gasoline tank on Harris street referred to fire chief. Sekulow Brothers given permission to operate the Buddy Dale Hat Shop at 60 Baltimore street, without bond. Refunds granted of $120 on a car owned by Elizabeth C. Athey, Oldtown, and of $648 to A. M. Pitts, 310 Piedmont avenue for tax returns. Letter from Miss A. Rodenhauer, complaining of noise and dirt on the Queen City boulevard, referred to the B. and O. railroad.

The daily average water consumption last week was 10,654,000 compared to 9,920,000, the same period last year. Lake Gordon is one foot four inches below the crest and Lake Koon, two feet six inches below.

Two More Allegany County Soldiers Wounded in Action
Two more Allegany county soldiers, Pfc. Harry K. Wilson, son of Mr. Elsie Miller, 213 Oak street, Cumberland and Staff Sergeant George W. Kinsinger, Klondike, near Probstburg, have been reported wounded in France.

Pfc. Wilson was wounded on July 13. He left here with Company G in 1941 and was still with the outfit when wounded in action according to word received here. A graduate of Port Hill high school in the class of 1939, he was employed in the textile department of the Celanese plant before entering the army.

Staff Sgt. Hitchins is the husband of Mrs. Melva Patterson Hitchins, Klondike, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hitchins, of Carlow. Cpl. Butts entered service December 1, 1943, and was assigned to the division which took part in the D-day invasion of the French coast.

WAVE RECRUITER—Mary D. McCleary, yeoman second class, arrived at the navy recruiting station yesterday. She will remain here until August 4 to take charge of the observance of the second anniversary of the organization of the WAVES July 31. Yeoman McCleary was on duty at the local station June 20 to 27, when she returned to the naval barracks in Washington, D. C. She will report to the recruiting station in Hagerstown when she leaves Cumberland.

O'Rourke To Head County Political Action Committee

Labor Leaders Call for Re-election of President Roosevelt

Benjamin W. O'Rourke, chairman of the Maryland State Legislative Board was elected temporary chairman of the Allegany County branch of the Citizens Political Action Committee, at a meeting of labor representatives of this area held last evening in the ballroom of the Port Cumberland hotel.

Other members of the organization, with a three-fold purpose to re-elect Roosevelt, direct political action and to place liberal candidates in office, are William J. Jones, of the local Boiler-makers' union, vice president; Charles E. Stutzman, business manager of Local 353, Teamsters and Chauffeurs Union, secretary, and George W. Parker, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, treasurer.

Executive Board Named
Appointed to work in conjunction with the officers as an executive board were Gilbert Lewis, chairman of the Local 1874, TWU, Political Action committee, and John E. Neal, recording secretary of Local 1874, TWU, and Henry W. Frazier, president of Cumberland Typographical Union No. 244.

Although last night's organization gave no place to women, James A. Dundon, chairman of the CIO Political Action Committee for the Sixth congressional district, announced that co-chairmen, one a woman, will be appointed in the near future.

Must Redouble Efforts
Declaring the coming election the most important since Lincoln's second campaign in 1864, Thomas Conner, Baltimore, director of the CIO Political Action Committee of Maryland, told the group that it will take a real campaign to return Roosevelt to the White House. Reminding the labor group that the war is not yet won, he called for redoubled effort for victory and the peace that will follow.

The Baltimore labor leader closed with the solemn warning that if labor does not do its part in the coming election there may be no unions in 1946.

Former McCrory Employee Loses Life at Camp

Word has been received here of the death in the line of duty at Camp Rucker, Ala., of Pfc. Clifford Carroll Newbraugh, Berkeley Springs, W. Va., a former employee of the McCrory store here.

Pfc. Newbraugh was a veteran of Guadalcanal and returned to this country following an attack of malaria fever in the Pacific war zone. He was in Cumberland about a month ago on furlough. No details of how he met his death have been received here.

His mother lives at Berkeley Springs, where funeral services were held this afternoon. Fred Newbraugh, a brother resides with his mother.

Local Motorist Receives Suspended Fine of $2
James W. Wright, 110 South street, received a suspended fine of $2 on a charge of reckless driving following a hearing before Magistrate Frank A. Perdue in trial magistrates court yesterday, and Joseph Dorsey, 108 Race street, was acquitted of the same charge after a hearing.

Oldtown Woman Hurt In Capital Bus Crash
The local motorists were involved in a collision at the intersection of Grand avenue and Second street Saturday morning. Wright, who served his car to avoid the crash, was slightly injured when his car overturned after striking the curb.

Mabel Twigg, 35, Oldtown, received lacerations of the knee and face in the crash of two passenger buses Sunday at Washington, D. C. Forty-two persons, including twenty Marylanders, were treated at hospitals following the collision.

Local MP Promoted
Pfc. Robert Butts, a member of the local military police detachment, has been promoted to the rank of corporal. A native of Bristol, Tenn., Cpl. Butts entered service December 1, 1943, and was assigned to the military police after basic training at Fort George G. Meade.

Pekin Woman Will Get Purple Heart

Mrs. John Kiddy To Accept Award for Brother at Special Exercises

Presentation of a Purple Heart medal to Mrs. John Kiddy, of Pekin, who will accept the award in behalf of her brother, Alexander Alderice, will mark ceremonies to be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Central high school, according to the sponsorship of Mountain Chapter No. 166, Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Alderice, who is receiving treatment at a government hospital, was wounded in action April 14, 1918 while serving as a mechanic with Company I, Ninth infantry, Second division.

The program will be in charge of W. Clive Brant, commander of Mountain chapter, assisted by Miss Anne M. Sloan, of James Love Post American Legion, Lonaconing. The medal will be presented by George M. Leib, of this city. Maryland department of the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

New members who will take the obligation of the order at the ceremony are Roy S. Beeman, William Park, Edward Doyle, George McCormick and John Blubaugh. Veterans in Lonaconing or vicinity may make application for the Purple Heart or Victory medal at the American Legion home in Lonaconing following Wednesday's exercises.

Memberships in the local chapter have been issued to three Allegany countyans wounded in the present war. The recipients are Ira Hershberger, Cresaptown, who has been discharged from the service, and Sgts. Thomas J. Debaugh and John N. Love, who were wounded in the invasion of France, and are still overseas. Hershberger suffered wounds while fighting in the South Pacific.

Divorce Granted Mrs. Marie Brown; Four Suits Filed

Frostburg Woman Is Given Permanent Custody of Two Children

Mrs. Marie Brown, Frostburg, was granted a complete divorce yesterday in circuit court from Ralph Brown, a Celanese employee, in a decree signed by Associate Judge William A. Huster.

The couple were married in Frostburg January 13, 1928, and lived together until April 26, 1935, when Mrs. Brown charged her husband with desertion. They have three children, two of whom are minors. Mrs. Brown filed suit for divorce June 15.

Mrs. Brown was granted permanent custody of the two minor children, Mary Catherine, 15, and Robert Lee, 10. Brown was ordered to pay his wife $20 monthly alimony toward their support. Mrs. Brown was represented by Estel C. Kelley.

Mrs. Doris Anita Richter, through her mother and next friend, Mrs. Margaret Dean, filed suit in circuit court yesterday for a complete divorce from Rodney D. Richter, now serving in the army. Mrs. Richter charged desertion. They were married December 11, 1941, and lived together until January 1943.

Edwin M. Horchler, attorney for the wife, said she is a minor. Richter, who is stationed in Alabama, filed an answer consenting to a hearing in the case.

Charging cruelty, Mrs. Josephine Angellilli Landis filed suit yesterday for a partial divorce from Harvey Cletus Landis, McMillen highway. Paper and Carton Scarcity Is Felt By Local Markets

Bring Your Own Basket or Bag Is Advice Given to Shoppers

Paper is scarce—bring your own basket or bag when possible. This is the wording of a sign which occupies a conspicuous place in the window of a large North Centre street market and denotes that a paper shortage is developing in Cumberland.

Local merchants admit that the paper shortage is so acute in Baltimore that many grocers are wrapping meat in newspaper and that the pinch is just starting to be felt here. In a move to conserve paper many local stores are using as small amount as possible to wrap meat.

Not only is wrapping paper hard to get but cardboard cartons are so scarce that local retail stores are returning empties because future shipments are based on the amount of empties returned to the factories where the commodities are packed. Flaps of most cartons are now pasted together instead of being stapled to permit the removal of packages without tearing off the flaps so that the cardboard cases can be returned and used again.

The carton shortage is regarded as more critical locally due to the fact that many of the larger markets depend on the use of cartons for grocery order deliveries.

One local market manager points out that allotments of paper bags are so small that there would be few available at his place of business if he hadn't bought heavy and had a good supply on hand before the shortage put in its appearance.

While the bag and wrapping paper situation is just developing here market managers advise customers to make more use of shopping bags or baskets or they'll have to find other means of taking their groceries home if the situation gets worse.

Doctor of Science Degree Awarded Myron L. Simpson

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Simpson Completes Course

The degree of Doctor of science, in the School of Hygiene and Public Health at Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, has been awarded to Myron L. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Simpson, 1112 Bedford street. For the duration graduates are awarded their degrees when they complete the prescribed requisites.

Dr. Simpson majored in the general field of parasitology, with research in bacteriology. His work centered around the general problem of the reproduction of the malarial parasite in the blood systems of various hosts. Dr. Simpson also studied immunology, human biology, pathology, biochemistry, protozoology, medical entomology and biostatistics.

A member of the graduating class of 1928 of Allegany high school, and Massanutten Military Academy, Woodstock, Va., 1929, Dr. Simpson was graduated from American university, Washington, D. C., in 1933 receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree.

From September of that year until June 1938, Dr. Simpson was head of the department of science and German director of dramatics, and faculty advisor for the student publication at Massanutten. Before matriculating at Johns Hopkins, he took graduate instruction at the University of Cincinnati, O., and at the Medical College of Virginia, in Richmond. In the summer of 1936 to 1942 he served as assistant director and director of Camp Lupton, operated by Massanutten, near Woodstock.

Dr. Simpson, in the past school year was one of two students at the School of Hygiene and Public Health, elected to the national honorary organization, Sigma Xi.

Dr. Simpson is the author of three scientific articles on his researches in malaria. The first appeared in the June issue of Journal of Bacteriology, and the others are scheduled to appear in forthcoming issues of the American Journal of Hygiene and the American Journal of Tropical Medicine.

The Rev. Carl H. Clapp Will Take over Duties Here September 1

The Rev. Carl H. Clapp, of Pitcairn, Pa., has accepted a call to be pastor of St. Mark's Evangelical and Reformed church, 217 Harrison street, and will arrive here Friday, September 1 and take over his new duties. It was announced last evening by C. C. Gillum, secretary of the local church consistory.

Selected from a list of candidates furnished the church-consistory by the Pittsburgh Synod, the Rev. Mr. Clapp preached a trial sermon at the 11 o'clock service in the local church on Sunday, June 25. A call was issued by the consistory following a congregational meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Clapp will succeed the Rev. Alfred L. Creager, who resigned the local pastorate June 15 to accept a call to the Orwigsburg, Pa., Reformed church.

A graduate of the Theological seminary, Lancaster, Pa., the Rev. Mr. Clapp engaged in his first field work at Newton, N. C., where he was stationed for seven years. He has been pastor of the first Reformed church, Pitcairn, Pa., since April 1, 1940. He is 40 years old.

G. H. Winters is president and A. M. Steiner, treasurer, of the consistory which extended the call to the Rev. Mr. Clapp.

Commencing Sunday, July 30, the pulpits of St. Mark's church will be filled each Sunday at the 11 o'clock service by student ministers from the Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., until the arrival of the new pastor.

Fourth Campaign For Wastepaper To Start Today

Four-day Collection Will Get Under Way on West Side at 9 a. m.

Cumberland's fourth house-to-house wastepaper collection drive today and tomorrow will be conducted by Emmett A. Dougherty on the West Side, The Dingle and Bowling Green and on all streets west of Will's creek and the Potomac river.

The collection will be spread over four days and the paper will be sent to the Container Corporation of Philadelphia, which manufactures blood plasma containers and other items essential to the war effort.

Sixty-seven tons of wastepaper was collected in the third drive held in Cumberland and vicinity a month ago for the Philadelphia firm and general for the twenty-one tons of commercial paper has been directed to the same company.

Persons having large quantities of paper which they are unable to move are requested to contact Dougherty or the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce and arrangements will be made to pick it up. This applies to storage of paper in business establishments and to quantities of half a truck-load or more.

Dougherty said that arrangements have been made for his trucks to pick up wastepaper at homes near Frantztown on the Bedford road. This collection will be made on Friday instead of tomorrow as originally planned.

It is estimated that 378 tons of paper have been collected in Cumberland and vicinity in the last ten months. Two hundred and sixty-five tons were collected in the three house-to-house campaigns while the remainder comprise paper from commercial houses.

The sixth carload of paper, assigned to the Philadelphia firm, was obtained yesterday from the city dump.

Tomorrow the collection will include streets north of Baltimore street and Baltimore avenue. Thursday, all streets south of Baltimore street and Baltimore avenue, including Oldtown road, Johnson Heights, Mapleside north of Oldtown road and LaVale. All sections south of Oldtown road, including the residential section of Oldtown road will be visited Friday.

Collection each day will start at 9 a. m.

Lt. Col. Franklin Lauds Facilities For Wounded Men

Former County Health Officer Is Home from Africa on Furlough

Wounded men have a much better chance for recovery in the present war due to the speed with which they are transferred from the scene of action to hospitals, Lt. Col. Joseph P. Franklin, former deputy state and county health officer, told friends who assembled yesterday in city hall to greet him upon his arrival here from Africa on a twenty-one day furlough.

Little time is lost in giving the men the best of surgical and medical care in the present conflict, Col. Franklin said. He praised the transportation facilities available in all theaters of war and said there is little chance of a wounded man lying in a shell hole without the proper attention of a medic for several days as was the case in the First World War.

Col. Franklin told of the miracles of being accomplished with the use of blood plasma and the sulpha drugs in Africa where he has been stationed since leaving England last November.

While in Oran, Africa, Col. Franklin was in charge of a 1,000-bed hospital. He also was in the Middle East on an inspection tour, visiting Jerusalem and Cairo.
